HISTORY · HERITAGE · ADVENTURE & MORE

Music, outdoor adventures, arts and entertainment, spectacular scenery, history and great family activities are what Randolph County offers visitors to the great state of West Virginia.

Conveniently located in one of the most beautiful parts of the state, Randolph County is rich with a mountain heritage, civil war history, a music culture that is second to none, and mountain scenery that will leave you breathless.

Combine all of this with great festivals, local artisans and friendly hospitality, and your time spent here will be considered priceless. As the official Visitor Center for Randolph County, we can offer you brochures, maps and literature on destinations, lodgings and events to help you plan your visit. Experience and share our heritage, history, culture and mountain scenery, it will provide memories that will last a lifetime.

EXPERIENCE

- Hiking & Biking
- Fishing & Hunting
- Bird Watching
- Scenic Byways & Parks

Nestled between the Continental Divide and the shadow of Seneca Rocks, the unique mountain landscape found in the Randolph County region, is home to a wealth of natural wonders like the Monongahela National Forest, Dolly Sods Scenic Area and Spruce Knob, the highest point in the state. Make sure to visit Kumbrabow Falls State Forest, located along the western edge of the Allegheny Highlands atop Rich Mountain. The 9,474 acres of forest range from 3,000 to 3,930 feet above sea level, making Kumbrabow the state's highest forest.

Specially constructed trails let mountain bikers have "epic rides" while hikers, not intimidated by great mountain landscapes, can go out into the backcountry as far as they like. The Highlands Trail provides 25 miles of an exceptionally scenic trail with panoramic views of the West Virginia countryside as it passes through a mountainous region with small towns and rural farmland. www.highlandstrail.org

Our rivers, streams and forests feature outstanding fishing and hunting with plenty of fish and game. For winter sports enthusiasts, we are just a short drive from three major ski areas.

Few places offer a better way to experience nature firsthand and the opportunity to revel in the solitude of the ancient Appalachian Mountains.

ARTS MUSIC THEATER

Elkins has the distinction of being one of the Top100 Best Art Towns in America. Enjoying arts and culture in Elkins and the Randolph County area can range from performances and exhibits at the Randolph County Community Arts Center to activities at the Augusta Heritage Center nationally known for activities related to traditional folklife and folk arts. Elkins is a Certified Arts Community, only the third town in the state to receive this prestigious designation.

Allegheny Highlands Trail Bluegrass Festival

Come out and enjoy a day of good food and good music at the Allegheny Highlands Trail Bluegrass Festival. The festival supports the Highlands Trail Foundation while featuring talented local musicians. Held the end of July. www.highlandstrail.org

The Randolph County Community Arts Center is a non-profit organization promoting and supporting the arts in Randolph County and surrounding areas. The Arts Center is located at the corner of Randolph Avenue and Park Street in Elkins, West Virginia.

Their Mission is to enhance the cultural and economic life of our region by providing facilities and arts programming that will entertain, educate, and inspire all of our citizens.

The Mountain Music Trail promotes cultural tourism and sustainable economic development near the Highway 219 corridor in Monroe, Greenbrier, Pocahontas, Randolph and Tucker counties; and sharing a cultural experience that brings together visitors and residents alike, to promote and educate the public about the various musical forms and folkways that reflect the values of the people living in the five county region. We invite you to share the experience. www.mountainmusictrail.com

Augusta

Sponsored activities in the community enrich the quality of life in the Elkins area year-round.

One of these activities is "Pickin' In The Park," a weekly series of informal old-time and bluegrass jam sessions hosted by Augusta every Wednesday night. From mid-May through September these jam sessions take place under the trees in Elkins City Park, attracting participants and spectators from near and far.

HISTORY

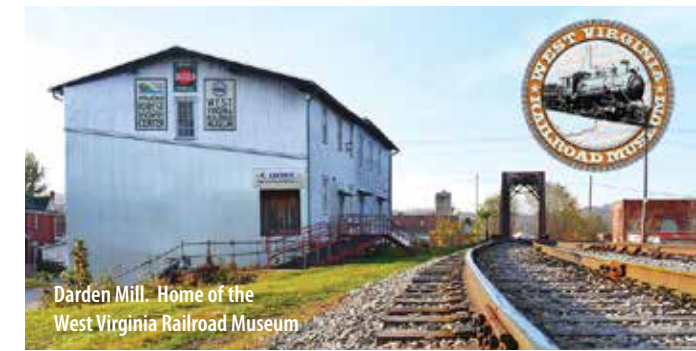

Visitors to Randolph County will enjoy the opportunity to explore the rich heritage of the region. Discover the battlefields, cemeteries, museums, and historical buildings that represent our role in the Civil War. Or, visit the small towns that today recapture the life-styles and spirit of our pioneering founders. From an 18th century home of a railroad tycoon to a quaint Swiss village nestled in the mountains, Randolph County is West Virginia history at its best!

FESTIVALS

Randolph County has history and heritage that is second to none in the Appalachian mountains and we celebrate all that makes us unique through the many festivals and events that take place in our variety of communities in the area.

Our celebrations all include great food, musical presentations, arts and crafts, heritage, history and culture, all locked into a background of some of the most beautiful mountain landscapes found in America.

THE FORKS
INN AND RESTAURANT

THE FORKS INN & RESTAURANT IS FIRST AND FOREMOST A FAMILY BUSINESS.

Brothers Trevor and Drew Stalnaker and their uncle, Executive Chef Jon Eric Stalnaker, combined 40+ years of restaurant experience into a business doing what they're passionate about, in a place they love.

They grow most of their own herbs, smoke a variety of meats on-premise, and make everything from mouth-watering desserts and soups to specialty mustards from scratch! Using local produce and supporting local farms, their menu is a mixture of fine American comfort dishes, which changes seasonally, so there's always a new reason to return.

At The Forks, you'll enjoy a relaxed atmosphere, stunning year-round views, and exceptional service. Visit them online to learn more about the family, check the hours of operation, view the current menu, or reserve a newly-remodeled inn room for your upcoming visit to Randolph County, West Virginia.
